At Wauregan on Saturday the Norwich-Taftville and Wauregan teams opened the Eastern Connecticut league Pon with the finest game of base. At Wauregan on Saturday the Norwich-Taftville and Wauregan teams opened the Eastern Connecticut league of with the finest game of base-fi ever seen in Wauregan, playing immings with a 1 to 0 score, of hich Norwich-Taftville had the one and Wauregan the goose egg. Inning after inning went by with only three men coming to bat on either side, but Norwich-Taftville finally won out when Emerson hammered out a double to right, Burdick sacrificed after Casey went out and Greenwood's single scored Emerson with the winning run.

Wauregan was crippled owing to shortstop Driscoll being unable to play of the shortstop Driscoll being unable to play of the Support from his field, McClafferty and Leopold playing a great game and Eurick making a star catch of a foul fy in right field. Boucher pitched practically a no-hit game, as the one single credited to Raymond was a bounder to Leopold, over which there was considerable question as to whether the fielder ought not to have been given an error.

Livesley in the box for Wauregan was also in tine form, and Raymond's house of the fourth inning. Jones finishing the game. SATURDAY MARKETS. Gains and Losses About Equally Divided-Active and Strong Closing.

New York, April 24.—10.10 a. m.—
The opening trading in stocks was quiet and offered no conspicuous features, and some small gains and losses were quite equally divided. Reading and American Smelting advanced 3-4.

11 a m.—A few stocks wavered slightly before the 11st began to move aggressively upwards. Reading was a dominant factor, raising 13-5. Wabash preferred and American Smelting also improved 11-4, and Union Pacific and a few other stocks rose 1.

Closing.—The market closed strong and active. Prices receded a fraction, but offerings promptly fell off, and the trading became dull. Late New York, April 24,-10.10 a. m .and the trading became cull, prices were bid up again.
